National Day of Encouragement

This day is observed in the United States on September 12th. It was first announced in 2007 and has been celebrated each year ever since. National Day of Encouragement was launched by the Encouragement Foundation at Harding University. It is a private liberal arts Christian university in the city of Searcy, Arkansas. This day is dedicated to uplifting people around us and making a positive impact by acts of encouragement, offering reassurance and inspiration to those who need it.

As followers of Christ, each day is an opportunity for us to encourage others. Matthew 5:13-16 states that we are to be salt and light to our world so that others may see our good deeds and praise our Father in Heaven. They will know we are Christians by our love.
